Yes, this is rather late to the punch, but here are some highlights of the CPC, as of August 2018, when the Halifax Policy Convention was held. Quotes are from CPC website.

UK Armed Forces To Open Doors To CANZUK Recruits

This organization, seen here, is pushing for open borders between Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and the UK. Under the pretext of: “free trade, and free movement of people”, it is pushing for the elimination of barriers.

Unfortunately, there is scant information available on this organization, but here from the

FAQ:

Is CANZUK International a charity? Is my donation tax-deductible?

CANZUK International is a nonprofit advocacy organization headquartered in Vancouver, Canada. Under Canadian law, charities are restricted to spending 10% or less of their budget on political advocacy. CANZUK International's campaign is highly effective because so much of our work involves advocating for policy change. We just couldn't do the work we do as a charity under the current rules. Your donation is a very powerful contribution to helping achieve free movement, trade and foreign policy cooperation between the CANZUK countries, but unfortunately, it's not tax-deductible at this time.

Are you affiliated with any political parties?

We are strictly a non-partisan organization, but we support individuals who align with our campaign, no matter who they may be affiliated with themselves. We frequently speak with political leaders and their staff to raise awareness of our campaign and seek their support for our proposals. This, in turn, helps develop change in each of the four respective parliaments.

How does CANZUK International spend public donations?

100% of CANZUK International's contributions come from individual donors like you. Our monthly donors, giving an average of $10 a month, form the backbone of our support and help us campaign for freer movement, trade and foreign policy between Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the United Kingdom.

In 2017, 80% of our donations went to campaigning — this means the resources we need to run highly effective campaigns, publications, meetings, advertisements and action tools for our supporters. The other 20% went to operation and administrative costs, such as website maintenance and domain renewal.

On the surface, it seems harmless enough, but there are many questions that should be asked, including where specifically their funding comes from.

Recently, CanuckLaw covered this propaganda piece. The CBC released a piece advocating Canada increase its population to 100 million by the year 2100. It came from a globalist “non-profit” called Century Initiative.

Interesting, all of these non-profits working to boost immigration and eliminate borders.
Almost would think this was a conspiracy.

2. Conservatives Support Birth Tourism

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the Conservative Party of Canada website. It includes a red 'DONATE' button, links for 'ANDREW SCHEER' and 'TEAM', the party logo (a stylized 'C' with a red maple leaf), and links for 'EVENTS', 'MEDIA', a search icon, 'JOIN', and 'FR'.

On the left side, there are social media icons for Facebook and Twitter. The main content area features a news article with the following text:

"This is a practice that has received increasing attention from Canadian media in recent months.

"Our Shadow Minister for Immigration Michelle Rempel will soon begin her Pathways to Canada tour, during which she and other Conservative MPs will meet with stakeholders and policymakers to provide input on new Conservative immigration policy.

"While the policy passed did not clearly focus on ending the practice of birth tourism, ending birth tourism will be among the objectives of our policy.

"Conservatives recognize there are many Canadians who have been born in Canada by parents who have come here to stay and have contributed greatly to our country. I will not end the core policy that facilitates this. Unlike Justin Trudeau, I will safeguard it against abuse.

"A Conservative government will restore order, fairness, and compassion to Canada's immigration system."

On the right side, there are two additional headlines:

Trudeau Liberals Must Respect Canadians' Privacy: Albas

Justin Trudeau's Failed Justice Reform: Clen

The August 2018 Halifax Convention was reported to have passed a resolution to ban "birth tourism". This is the practice of a woman having a child in a foreign country for the sole purpose of it granting automatic citizenship. The child, now a legal citizen, can then sponsor its parents for citizenship. Indeed, that is what was reported by the media.

But the fact is the CPC didn't do any such thing. Rather, they passed a non-binding resolution aimed at "ending abuse", which is something entirely different.

"Our Shadow Minister for Immigration Michelle Rempel will soon begin her Pathways to Canada tour, during which she and other Conservative MPs will meet with stakeholders and policymakers to provide input on new Conservative immigration policy.

While the policy passed did not clearly focus on ending the practice of birth tourism, ending birth tourism will be among the objectives of our policy.

Conservatives recognize there are many Canadians who have been born in Canada by parents who have come here to stay and have contributed greatly to our country. I will not end the core policy that facilitates this. Unlike Justin Trudeau, I will safeguard it against abuse.”

To make this very clear, the CPC has not actually rejected, or promised to reject or repeal the practice. Rather they will “safeguard it from abuse”. What is abuse? No one is saying, and the <http://conservative.ca> website does not list policy on it.

3. Conservatives Support Citizenship For Fake Refugees

The screenshot shows the Conservative Party of Canada website. The top navigation bar is dark blue with a red 'DONATE' button, links for 'ANDREW SCHEER' and 'TEAM', the party logo (a white 'C' with a red maple leaf), and links for 'EVENTS' and 'MEDIA'. The main content area is white. On the left, there are social media icons for Facebook and Twitter. The article text reads: 'Conservatives have spent nearly three years... to put forward a plan to ensure Canada's immigration system operates in an orderly, planned, and safe manner. These calls have gone unanswered and Canadians' confidence in the system continues to plummet. "As the next step in our policy development process, we are launching Pathway To Canada, a tour of the country to hear from policy-makers and stakeholders on how best to improve our immigration system. "Specifically, we are looking for the best ways to integrate newcomers into Canada's economic and social fabric, address labor needs, and ensure provincial support is adequately budgeted for. "We are committed to doing whatever we can to restore Canadians' confidence in their immigration and refugee system." The Pathway to Canada tour will seek input from Canadians, newcomers, industry groups, provincial counterparts, international partners, and civil society groups on concepts outlined here: https://www.michellerempel.ca/m_p_rempel_s_pathway_to_canada_remarks

On the right side of the page, there are links to 'JOINT STATEMENT FROM ANDREW SCHEER AND F...', 'Trudeau Liberals Must R Privacy: Albas', and 'Justin Trudeau's Failed Jt...'

From this link, there is information on refugees.

“Specifically, we are looking for the best ways to integrate newcomers into Canada’s economic and social fabric, address labor needs, and ensure provincial support is adequately budgeted for.

We are committed to doing whatever we can to restore Canadians’ confidence in their immigration and refugee system.”

At no point does the CPC say they will “deport” those jumping the border and flaunting the immigration rules. Rather, they will “integrate” people better, and come come up with a “better plan” than the Liberals would. Of course, no actual details or plan are listed.

4. Conservatives Embrace Islam

Nothing says “I am Canadian”, quite like the pandering seen here.

“Tonight, Muslims in Canada and across the world will celebrate Eid al-Adha, also known as the ‘Festival of Sacrifice’ that commemorates the willingness of Abraham to sacrifice his son.

“Eid al-Adha marks the end of the Hajj, the pilgrimage to Mecca that is one of the five pillars of Islam. Undertaken by Muslims at least once in their lifetime, it is estimated that over two million Muslim pilgrims travel to Mecca for the Hajj each year.

“In addition to the religious importance of this holiday, Eid al-Adha is a time for many

Muslims to give back to their respective communities and to help the less fortunate. It is also a period where families and friends come together and exchange gifts, share meals, donate to charities, and join one another in prayer.

Never mind how completely incompatible Islam is with Western society. Never mind the barbaric culture: (a) FGM; (b) Honour killings; (c) Skinning animals alive; (d) Death to infidels/kafirs; (e) Burka/Niqab; (f) Inequality for women; (g) Killing gays; (h) Killing Jews; etc....

Diversity is our strength! Right ?

5. Conservatives and UN Global Migration Compact

Michelle Rempel Garner

Watch on

That was covered in this previous article. While they claim to be “studying” the issue, fact is the CPC is not putting up any public resistance to it. Nor do they intend to.

So called “Shadow Minister” Michelle Rempel talks in circles on the issue (starting at about 4:50 in the video), but never gives a clear answer on it.

Note: this article was published on November 16, 2018. 4 days later, the CPC flipfopped and now claimed to opposed the UN Global Migration Compact. Might have something to do with THIS BOMBSHELL being spread around.

6. Other Globalist Agreements

1. Agenda 21, signed by Brian Mulroney in June 1992
2. Agenda 2030, signed by Stephen Harper in September 2015
3. Paris Accord, supported by Andrew Scheer, despite mandated Carbon tax, June 2017
4. United Nations selecting refugees for Canada

These Are “Conservatives”?

To recap, this party supports:

- (a) Canzuk — free movement between Canada, Australia, New Zealand, UK
- (b) Birth Tourism
- (c) Citizenship for border jumping illegal immigrants
- (d) Pandering to Islam
- (e) UN Global Migration Compact
- (f) Agenda 21, signed June 1992
- (g) Agenda 2030, signed September 2015
- (h) Paris Accord, voted in June 2017
- (i) UN making decisions on refugee choices

This will seem rather cynical, but how exactly are these people “Conservative”? What does this party actually conserve? This is not conserving a society. This is open borders globalism.
